

Sheryl Bourque

Work Experience

January 2019 – Present

Lone Star College System, Instructor and Academic Fieldwork Coordinator

- Provide classroom, laboratory, clinical and practicum direction to students to enhance knowledge of occupational therapy assistant professional vocation
- Reinforce student performance remaining accessible through providing office hours to students as well as additional support for struggling students in order to demonstrate progress in program
- Advise student occupational therapy assistant, SOTA, club including planning, budgeting and directing officers and club members to market and endorse the OT profession

June 2021 – January 2024

Active Development Therapies, LLC, Outpatient Clinic Pediatric COTA

- Perform in state-of-the-art outpatient rehabilitation setting working with all forms of pediatric disabilities
- Increase client care through engaging in continuing education and skill development courses for the pediatric population
- Generate education resources for home programs and implement strategies for clinic use

October 2007 – February 2023

Cole Health, Cole Pediatric Therapy COTA

- Impact lives of 10-20 pediatric clients a week with diagnoses ranging from developmental delay to medically fragile in clinic and in client homes
- Build and maintain relationships with other disciplines including physical and speech therapists as well as administrative and executive staff
- Lead and train Level I and II COTA students as a fieldwork educator
- Utilize technology via Telehealth OT service delivery model during worldwide pandemic to reach vulnerable and immunocompromised clients

May 2002 - June 2003

Kraft Foods, Oscar Mayer Wiernermobile Ambassador

- 1 of 13 college graduates selected across the United States representing Oscar Mayer as a member of "Hotdogger" class 15
- Promote Oscar Mayer by driving Wiernermobile, hosting events and completing promotions while working with media to reinforce brand name
- Deliver scholarships to elementary schools across the nation speaking for Kraft Foods

Education

January 2006 - August 2007

Associate of Applied Science Degree

Lone Star College - Kingwood Campus

August 1998 - May 2002

Bachelor of Science in Communication Studies

The University of Texas at Austin

Community Outreach

July 2021 – December 2023

The Foster Care Community Houston Angels

Lead an at-risk youth every other week in the Dare to Dream program to meet life milestones

December 2020 – June 2022

Meals on Wheels Montgomery County

Safely drive, pick-up and deliver 9 meals to alleviate hunger while fostering dignity of homebound senior citizens in zoned route every week

August 2019 – March 2021

Houston reVision

Positively impact disconnected youth by mentoring with compassion and no judgment throughout the city of Houston one hour a week

Professional Affiliations

American Occupational Therapy Association member

Texas Occupational Therapy Association member